PART 2

• Match the main idea with each paragraph.

When it comes to a person who impresses me the most, I always think of my English teacher, Ms. Li, from my middle school years. She was of medium build and always had a smile on her face.

Describe the person

One particular event that stands out in my memory is the English speaking competition. I had never dreamed of giving a speech in public, but Ms. Li saw potential in me and encouraged me to participate in. With great patience, she taught me everything about giving a speech. Most importantly, she made me more confident. On the day of the competition, despite my nervousness, I stood on that stage with determination and ended up winning it.

Summarize the influence

Through the story between Ms. Li and me, I want to stress that Ms. Li not only helped me win that competition, but also brought out the best in me.
